

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

BY THE COMMISSION:

In its July 24, 2007 Order Granting the Application in Part, the Commission allowed a portion of expenses for membership dues and fees to organizations that directly contribute to the growth and retention of Aquila's customer base to be included in operating expenses.

Nothing in this Protective Order shall preclude any Participant from requesting the Commission, or any other body having appropriate authority, to find that this Protective Order should not apply to all or any materials previously designated as Confidential Materials pursuant to this Protective Order. The Commission may alter or amend this Protective Order as circumstances warrant at any time during the course of this proceeding.

Paragraph 17: If the Commission finds at any time in the course of this proceeding that all or part of the Confidential Materials need not be protected, those materials shall, nevertheless, be subject to the protection afforded by this Protective Order for five (5) business days from the date of issuance of the Commission's decision, and if the Participant seeking protection files an interlocutory appeal, for an addition seven (7) business days. None of the Participants waives its rights to seek additional administrative or judicial remedies after the Commission's decisions respecting Confidential Materials or Reviewing Representatives, or the Commission's denial of any appeal thereof.

The Commission finds that only information filed with respect to a membership due or fee approved by the Commission to be included in Aquila's operating expenses is no longer subject to the protection afforded by the November 28, 2007 Protective Order and may be made available to the public.

O R D E R

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Nebraska Public Service Commission in the above-captioned matter that the information previously declared confidential described herein is no longer subject to the Protective Order and is available to the Public.

MADE AND ENTERED at Lincoln, Nebraska, this 14th day of August, 2007.
